TRAINING COURSES AND FACILITATORS

What is the Annual Peacebuilding Training of MPI all about?

The Annual Peacebuilding Training is a three-week training organized and conducted once every year by MPI. It is part of the Institute's Education and Training Program that aims to capacitate individuals and their institutions in the field of peacebuilding that began in the year 2000. The training offers different courses that explore major themes and cutting-edge debates, including the latest and most pressing issues on matters of peace, justice and conflict.

What will I gain if I participate in this training?

The training will not only provide you with new knowledge and a broader understanding about peacebuilding and conflict transformation; you will not only acquire and develop skills and capacities needed to be more effective in your peacebuilding work, but you will also become part of a growing network of peacebuilders around the world. You will have the opportunity to be immersed in an environment of diversity: diversity of peoples, histories, cultures, ideas, beliefs and principles, where all are celebrated, shared and affirmed. Many participants ascribe equal value to the bonding, friendships, and solidarity that are created during the training.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Does MPI provide scholarships to applicants?

For the 2020 Annual Peacebuilding Training, MPI offered a limited number of scholarships in memory of Elsie Bacayo. Elsie worked with MPI for three years and was an alumna of MPI’s Annual Peacebuilding Training. She was a model peacebuilder in a simple but profound way. She internalized the values of a peacebuilder—a culture of peace, love, and respect for life—and lived these to the fullest. To honor Elsie as a person and peacebuilder, the MPI established the Elsie M. Bacayo Annual Peacebuilding Training Scholarship Fund to enable deserving peacebuilders to participate in MPI’s Annual Peacebuilding Training.

The deadline for submission of the scholarship application was March 1, 2020. Please check back next year to see if there are scholarships available once again if you were not able to take advantage of one this year.

I'm not from the Philippines; do I need to get a visa to enter the country?

Most foreign nationals "who are traveling to the Philippines for business and tourism purposes are allowed to enter the Philippines without visas for a stay not exceeding thirty (30) days, provided they hold valid tickets for their return journey to port of origin or next port of destination and their passports are valid for a period of at least six (6) months beyond the contemplated period of stay." Please see (<https://www.dfa.gov.ph/list-of-countries-for-21-day-visa>) to determine if your country is listed as one whose nationals are allowed to enter the Philippines without a visa for a period of 30 days. Those holding Hong Kong or Macau passports should see the bottom of the page.

If your country is not listed, please see the general guidelines and requirements here: <https://www.dfa.gov.ph/guidelines-requirements>. However, we strongly urge you to visit or contact the nearest Philippine consulate/embassy that is designated to issue a visa to nationals from your country for their specific requirements since these vary widely and, in some countries, are very strict. You may also require documents from MPI that will be provided to you.

Can I pay in US Dollars when I am in the country?

No. The Philippine Peso (₱ or PhP) is the official currency for all transactions within the country. However, there are money exchange services at the airport and in many places in Davao City (banks, shopping malls, shops). Be sure to have ready cash (in Philippine Pesos) to pay for local transportation and for your other needs and expenses.

You may check the daily peso-dollar exchange rates at <http://www.bsp.gov.ph>. Please note that exchange rates change frequently, and rates quoted here may not reflect the rate you will get at an exchange service.

I want to stay in another hotel in Davao City other than the training venue.

If you choose to live-out, you have to make the necessary arrangements yourself. However, we can provide a list of hotels and contact details upon request.

The training will be held during Ramadan. Will MPI be making arrangements for participants who will fast?

The first week of the MPI 2020 Annual Peacebuilding Training will be during the final week of the holy month of Ramadan. For those participants who will be fasting during this time, MPI and Mergrande Ocean Resort Management will make special arrangements to accommodate their needs.

How do I get to the training venue from the airport and/or from other parts of Davao City?

For participants arriving at Francisco Bangoy International Airport in Davao City, MPI will provide an airport pick-up. This will be shared with you once your application is accepted. If you are unable to make any of the pick-up schedules, please plan to take a taxi from the airport to the venue. You will have to shoulder this expense. A one-way trip rate should not exceed PhP600.

Upon exiting the terminal, cross the airport road and go up the steps/ramp to the taxi stand where taxis line up for passengers. It will be much more expensive if someone approaches you to offer you a ride-service.

For participants within Davao City or Mindanao and those who want to make use of local transportation, you may take the jeepneys bound for Toril/Mulig.

1. Take a Toril/Mulig bound jeepney from downtown Davao City (coming from Toril, this jeepney passes by S&R on MacArthur Highway, JS Gaisano/Ilustre St., Aldevinco/Roxas Blvd., and SM-Ecoland); instruct the driver to drop you off at the crossing going to Mergrande Ocean Resort. One-way fare is PhP30 for one person.

2. From the crossing, take a sidecar/tricycle and tell the driver to take you to Mergrande Ocean Resort. Be sure that you ask for the price before you get in the tricycle. Going-rate should not exceed PhP40.
